PRINCIPLES

(Brief note by the composer)

This work was inspired by my first encounter with Jefferson's personal Creed, chiseled high on the stone wall of his Memorial in Washington, D.C., during cherry blossom time. It stunned me like a lighting bolt. Other texts there intrigued me as well, given my lifelong concern with social justice. Some research provided further texts, culminating in the amazing Statute of Virginia for religious freedom, a document for our time, which sets the tone for the whole work. The piece evolved across several versions into a setting for mixed chorus, baritone soloist, and orchestra.

Musically, the piece is a hybrid; it draws on the old formal conventions of oratorio, with choral sections, solo arioso, interludes, more choral passages, recitative, and so on. But it is dramatic in emotional range, and stylistically rooted in mid-20th-century, in the neo-tonal vein. The form was delineated by my choices of text, and the text was a challenge to set. Jefferson's prose uses the long, earnest cadence of the Enlightenment, with formal rhetorical flourishes and extended series of clauses. To get a manageable "libretto," I made frequent ellipses—without altering meanings or inflections. Although many of his formulations spoke directly to me, few evoked lyricism. My response was to develop a hortatory, structured singing rhetoric to match the logic, rhythm, and structure of the ideas; I managed to develop some lyric passages as well.

The principles set to music here are not worn out, nor are they merely empty rhetoric (remember Tian an Men and Tahrir squares). We have scarcely begun to realize the potential that lies behind Jefferson's optimistic view in his last days, that "All eyes are opened, or opening, to the rights of Man." I simply hope that my music will help to "refresh our recollection of these rights, and an undiminished devotion to them."

The text sources, in order of setting, are:

His personal Creed

Statute of Virginia for religious freedom, 1779/86

Letter, London, 1787, in reference to Shay's Rebellion

His personal Motto

Declaration of Independence, 1776

His self-penned Epitaph

His last letter, June 24, 1826, declining an invitation to the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, due to his failing health. [He died July 4, 1826]

DURATION: Ca. 32 minutes

I HAVE SWORN UPON THE ALTAR OF [ALMIGHTY] GOD
ETERNAL HOSTILITY AGAINST EVERY FORM OF TYRANNY
OVER THE MIND OF MAN.
[Jefferson’s Creed]

... Almighty God hath created the mind free, and manifested His supreme will that free it shall remain, by making it altogether insusceptible of restraint;

... all attempts to influence it by temporal punishments, or burthens, or by civil incapacitations, tend only to beget habits of hypocrisy and meanness. ...

... the impious presumption of legislature and ruler, civil as well as ecclesiastical, who, being themselves but fallible and uninspired men, have assumed dominion over the faiths of others, setting up their own opinions and modes of thinking as the only true and infallible, and as such endeavoring to impose them on others, hath established and maintained false religions over the greatest part of the world and through all time. ...

... our civil rights have no dependence on our religious opinions,
any more than our opinions in physics or geometry;
and therefore the proscribing any citizen as unworthy the public confidence ... unless he profess or renounce this or that religious opinion, is depriving him injudiciously of those privileges and advantages to which ... he has a natural right; it tends also to corrupt the principles of that very religion it is meant to encourage, by bribing with a monopoly of worldly ... emoluments those who will externally profess and conform to it; indeed, these are criminals who do not withstand such temptation; yet neither are those innocent who lay the bait in their way;

... the opinions of men are not the object of civil government, nor
under its jurisdiction;
... to restrain the profession ... of principles on supposition of their ill tendency is a dangerous fallacy, which at once destroys all religious liberty
... it is time enough for the rightful purposes of civil government for its officers to interfere when principles break out into overt acts against peace and good order;

therefore,
We, the General Assembly of Virginia, do enact:
that no man shall be compelled to frequent or support any religious worship, place, or ministry whatsoever, nor shall be enforced, restrained, molested, or burthened in his body or goods, or shall otherwise suffer, on account of his religious opinions or beliefs;
but that all men shall be free to profess, and by argument to maintain their opinions in matters of religion, and that the same shall in no wise diminish, enlarge, or affect their civil capacities.

... we are free to declare, and do declare, that the rights hereby asserted are of the natural rights of mankind ...

... the truth is great and will prevail if left to herself;
she is the proper and sufficient antagonist to error, and has nothing to fear from the conflict unless by human interposition deprived of her natural weapons, free argument and debate;
errors ceasing to be dangerous when it is permitted freely to contradict them.

[from the Statute of Virginia for religious freedom, 1779/86]

What country can preserve its Liberties, if its rulers are not warned from time to time, that this people preserve the spirit of resistance? Let them take arms.

The tree of Liberty must be refreshed from time to time, with the blood of patriots and tyrants. It is its natural manure.

[From a letter, London, 1787, in reference to Shay’s Rebellion]

Rebellion to Tyrants is Obedience to God.
[Personal motto]

We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal,
that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights,
[and] that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness.
That, to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.
That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends it is the Right of the People to alter or abolish it, and to institute new Government ... in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

... Governments long established should not be changed for light or transient causes;
... mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed.

But ... under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; [... and [should] assume among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God entitle them]
... and that as Free and Independent States they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do.

And for the support of this Declaration,
with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other
our Lives
our Fortunes
and our sacred Honor.
[from the Declaration of Independence, 1776]

Here was buried
Thomas Jefferson
Author of the Declaration of American Independence of the Statute of Virginia for religious freedom and Father of the University of Virginia.
[His self-penned epitaph]

... that host of worthies, who joined with us on that day, in the bold and doubtful election we were to make for our country ...
... the choice we made ... between submission or the sword ...
may it be to the world ... the signal ... to burst the chains ... and to assume the blessings and security of self-government.

That form which we have substituted, restores the free right to the unbounded exercise of reason and freedom of opinion.
These are grounds of hope for others.

All eyes are opened, or opening, to the rights of man.
... the mass of mankind has not been born with saddles on their backs, nor a favored few booted and spurred, ready to ride them legitimately, by the grace of God.
[... all men are created equal.]

For ourselves, let the annual return of this day forever refresh our recollections of these rights, and an undiminished devotion to them.

[All eyes are opened, or opening, to the rights of man.]

[From his letter, June 24, 1826, declining an invitation to the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, due to his failing health. He died July 4,
