

BLACK BEAUTY
by Meredith Kennedy

Sweet grass and apples and the first light of day
No saddle, no bridle, just the wind and the sun
All I ask is a place on your back as you run
'cause with you I believe I can fly
'cause with you I believe I can fly.

With the heart of a lion and fire in your eye
With you I believe I can fly
Fly high, Black Beauty fly high
Fly high, Black Beauty fly high.

Take me with you on your run for the sun,
Take me with you on your run for the sun,
Take me with you on your run for the sun,
Take me with you on your run for the sun,

May your journey be free of sorrow and care
All I ask when you run is you let me be there
Your heart is as strong as the wind in my hair
With you I believe I can fly
With you I believe I can fly

Fly high, Black Beauty fly high
Fly high, Black Beauty fly high

I will wait through the night
For the sun's morning light
I know you'll be there
In the cold morning light
To carry me beyond the last morning star
Black Beauty with you I can fly

With the heart of a lion and fire in your eye
With you I believe I can fly
Fly high, Black Beauty fly high
Fly high, Black Beauty fly high

Take me with you on your run for the sun,
Take me with you on your run for the sun,
Take me with you on your run for the sun,
Take me with you on your run for the sun,

Fly high, Black Beauty fly high

Fly high.

Black Beauty fly high

Take me with you on your run for the sun,

Take me with you on your run for the sun,

Take me with you on your run for the sun,

Take me with you on your run for the sun,
