

This Sacred Space

Holy, Holy, Holy
Lord God of all.
Heaven and Earth are full of Thy glory.

Alleluia, this day we say
This space is sacred.
This day we pray
This space is holy.

Today we say this room of worship is dedicated,
This house of prayer is consecrated
To the Lord of all.

(Hymn)

This holy space where we convene
To praise the Lord of all,
This holy place, this sacred space,
Belongs to all who call
For peace throughout the world, and joy
To those who share the love
Of the Eternal One
We praise forever more.

(congregation joins)

For when we gather here to pray,
our spirits join as one.
With single voice we raise our song,
our praising's never done.
We pray for Grace and love, and kindness,
giving each to each.
We fill our house with prayer.
May Heaven hear us there!

Alleluia
