

DAVID AVSHALOMOV
Moon Song

for Solo Clarinet

© 2013 Raven Music

Created for the Composer's Voice concert series event, Fifteen-Minutes-of-Fame: Â Javier Perez Garrido and chosen from among over 60 submissions from around the globe to be included in this set of short works. Premiered by Mr. Garrido February 14, 2014 at the Conservatorio Profesional de Musica de Cartagena (Murcia), Spain.

NOTE

Two troubled lovers stand beneath mountain pines on a clear cold night, holding hands. The pale moon slowly rises and, gazing at it, each privately wonders-- must they part? (It is all in how you play the melody, and how softly and expressively you can play it in that high register.)

Clarinet in B \flat

MoonSong

(for Javier Pérez Garrido)

David Avshalomov

Andantino

poignant

pppp < mp > p rubato, espressivo